DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Heinonen et al ("Heinonen"), U.S. Patent No. 5,857,151.

Regarding claims 1,4,7 and 10, Heinonen discloses a telephone set identifying method and apparatus, and PC card comprising the latter, and a computer-readable storage medium which stores a program for causing a computer which couples to a portable telephone set, for identifying a type of portable telephone set to which a data processing apparatus is coupled, comprising the steps of:

identifying the type of the portable telephone set based on a response with respect to an operation start signal which is output to a data interface part of the portable telephone set (col. 1, lines 40-44).

Regarding claims 2, 5,8,11, Heinonen discloses a telephone set identifying method and apparatus, and PC card comprising the latter, and a computer-readable storage medium which stores a program for causing a computer which couples to a portable telephone set for identifying a type of portable telephone set to which a data processing apparatus is coupled, comprising the steps of:

identifying the type of the portable telephone set based on a waveform of a signal output (i.e., reads on start-up signal) from a specific terminal (i.e., reads on selecting radio power) of a data interface part of the portable telephone set (col. 1, lines 40-50).

Regarding claims 3, 6, 9 and 12, Heinonen discloses a telephone set identifying method and apparatus, and PC card comprising the latter, and a computer-readable storage medium which stores a program for causing a computer which couples to a portable telephone set for identifying a type of portable telephone set to which a data processing apparatus is coupled, comprising the steps of:

identifying the type of the portable telephone set based on an allocation pattern of input and output terminals of a data interface part of the portable telephone set (i.e., reads on alignment to sensitivities corresponding to different current input groups or pattern or allocation) (see col. 2, lines 56-62).

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Naoki et al. ("Naoki"), JP 09-259391.

Regarding claim 13, Naoki discloses a processing apparatus operatively coupled between a communication equipment and an information processing apparatus, comprising:

an identifying part identifying a type of the communication equipment and outputting an identification signal (page 1, para. 0007); and a switching part switching a communication protocol prestored for each type of the communication equipment, based on the identification signal (page 1, para. 0007, page 4, para. 0029).

Regarding claim 14, Naoki discloses the processing apparatus as claimed in claim 13, wherein the communication equipment is a mobile communication equipment (see Fig. 1, #4).

Regarding claim 15, Naoki discloses the processing apparatus as claimed in claim 14, wherein the mobile communication is a mobile telephone set capable of making a communication while moving or a personal handy-phone system telephone set unsuited for making a communication while moving (page 1, para. 0005).

Double Patenting

5. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

Art Unit: 2686

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

6. Claims 1-12 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-5 of copending Application No. 09/957,079; and 09/957,081. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claims 1-12 of this application conflict with claims 1-15 of Application Nos. 09/957,079; and 09/957,081. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

7. Claims 13-15 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 13-15 of copending Application No. 09/956,899. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claims 13-15 of this application conflict with claims 1-15 of Application Nos. 09/956,899. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.
